Item 4 of the provisional agenda*

ELECTIONS AND APPOINTMENTS TO SUBSIDIARY BODIES OF THE COUNCIL AND CONFIRMATION OF REPRESENTATIVES ON THE FUNCTIONAL COMMISSIONS

Election of 13 members of the Commission on the Status of Women

Note by the Secretary-General

1. At its first regular session of 1989, the Council, by resolution 1989/45 of 24 May 1989, decided that the membership of the Commission should be increased from 32 to 45 and that the seats should be allocated on the basis of the principle of equitable geographical distribution according to the following pattern:

Thirteen members from African States;
Eleven members from Asian States;
Four members from Eastern European States;
Nine members from Latin American and Caribbean States;
Eight members from Western European and other States.

2. The Council decided that the enlargement of the Commission should take effect from the beginning of 1990 before the convening of the extended session of the Commission to review and appraise progress in the implementation of the Nairobi Forward-looking Strategies for the Advancement of Women and further decided that the additional seats resulting from the increase in the membership of the Commission should be filled at the organizational session for 1990 of the Economic and Social Council.

First regular session of 1990

ELECTIONS, NOMINATIONS AND APPOINTMENTS

Election of members of the functional commissions of the Council

Note by the Secretary-General

1. In accordance with section V of Economic and Social Council resolution 557 C (XVIII) of 5 August 1954, as amended by the Council's decision of 19 December 1968, the Secretary-General sent a note verbale to Member States, on 29 December 1989, informing them of the forthcoming vacancies in the functional commissions to be filled by the Council at its first regular session of 1990, to be held from 1 to 25 May 1990.

2. Under the terms of Council resolution 1147 (XLI) of 4 August 1966, in 1990 the members of the Commission for Social Development, the Commission on Human Rights and the Commission on the Status of Women are to be elected on the basis of equitable geographical distribution according to a specified pattern. The Secretary-General, therefore, indicated in the annex to his note verbale, the pattern applicable to each of the commissions concerned.

3. With regard to the Commission for Social Development, the Council, by section IV of resolution 1139 (XLI) of 29 July 1966, decided that the Member States elected to the Commission should nominate to serve on the Commission candidates who hold key positions in the planning or execution of national social development policies or other persons qualified to discuss the formulation of social policies in more than one sector of development.

4. With regard to the Commission on the Status of Women, the Council, in its resolution 1989/45, decided that the membership of the Commission should be increased from 32 to 45 and that the seats should be allocated on the basis of the principle of equitable geographical distribution as set out in that resolution. The Council further decided that the additional seats resulting from the increase in the membership of the Commission should be filled at its organizational session for 1990. The 13 additional members will serve for a term beginning on the date of election and expiring on 31 December 1993. 1/

5. The composition of the functional commissions is given in the annex to the present document. The number of members to be elected to each commission from each regional group is indicated.
